The Tenant will be responsible for and agrees to pay to the Landlord all costs incurred by the Landlord due to any delays by the Tenant, or any of the Tenants, in vacating the premises at the end of the term of the lease, including, but not limited to attorney's fees and court costs. Notwithstanding such provision, the Tenant agrees not to remain in the premises after the end of the term of the lease without the written approval of the Landlord. The Tenant agrees that for each day that the Tenant, or any of the Tenants, stays in the premises after the lease has expired, a charge of twice the prorated daily rent under the lease will be made, and the Tenant agrees to pay same. In addition, the Tenant agrees to pay any and all charges for housing the new Tenant(s) for the premises, during such time as the Tenants (or any Tenant) hold over beyond the original lease term.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this section, the Landlord may accept any and all payments from the Tenant after the end of the lease term, and no new lease term will thereby be created. No new lease term may be created, except by written instrument signed by the Tenant and the Landlord. Any such payments received shall be applied to any and all charges permitted without any fault of the Tenant or his visitors, invitees, or licensees, as to render the premises unusable in the joint opinion of the Landlord and the Tenant, then the Landlord, at its option, may either a.) Forgive payment of the proportionate part of the rent due from the date of such damage to the date the premises are once again tenantable, or, in the alternative b.) may elect to terminate this lease by giving the Tenant five (5) days written notice thereof, in which case the lease shall terminate on the said fifth day and the Tenant shall surrender the premises on or before that day, and any future rent installments together with any unused portion of the security and damage deposit shall be refunded to the Tenant pro rata to the date of such destruction or damage. No claim for compensation will be made by the Tenant against the Landlord for any part of the improvement in which the premises are a part at any time.

11. DAMAGE TO PREMISES:

If the premises are partly damaged by fire or otherwise, repairs shall be made by the Landlord as speedily as possible and without lapse or reduction of rent due and payable. However, if the premises are destroyed or so much damaged by fire or any other cause without any fault of the Tenant or his visitors, invitees, or licensees, as to render the premises unusable in the joint opinion of the Landlord and the Tenant, then the Landlord, at its option, may either a.) Forgive payment of the proportionate part of the rent due from the date of such damage to the date the premises are once again tenantable, or, in the alternative b.) may elect to terminate this lease by giving the Tenant five (5) days written notice thereof, in which case the lease shall terminate on the said fifth day and the Tenant shall surrender the premises on or before that day, and any future rent installments together with any unused portion of the security and damage deposit shall be refunded to the Tenant pro rata to the date of such destruction or damage. No claim for compensation will be made by the Tenant against the Landlord for any part of the improvement in which the premises are a part at any time.

12. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW:

The Tenant agrees to comply with and to abide by all laws, ordinances, regulations, etc. of any and all governmental authorities, which may affect the premises. All fines imposed on the property will be passed on to tenants.

13. OPEN FIRES/COMBUSTIBLE MATERIALS PROHIBITED:

The Tenant agrees not to store any highly combustible materials nor permit any open fires. No candles burning on the premises. No cooking stoves or appliances that burn fuel are allowed on or near the building.

14. PERSONAL PROPERTY LIABILITY:

The Landlord shall not be liable nor responsible for any loss or damage to the personal property of the Tenant, his visitors, invitees, or licensees from whatever cause, excluding Landlord negligence. The Tenant(s) is strongly urged to obtain personal insurance or protection.

The Tenant agrees to defend, indemnify, and save harmless the Landlord from and against any and all liability, damages, expenses, fees, penalties, actions, causes of action, suits, costs, claims and/or judgments arising from injury to persons or to property, occasions, fees, penalties, actions, causes of action, suits, costs, claims and/or judgments arising from injury to property, damages, or legal expenses that the Tenant shall pay all attorney's fees and other costs to defend against any such claim or lawsuit and in the case the Landlord has to pay any judgment, settlement, or any other costs, the Tenant shall immediately pay to the Landlord the full amount of such judgment, settlement, etc.

The Tenant shall pay for all repairs to the demised premises and/or for repair or replacement of its fixtures, appurtenances, and alterations, his invitees, licensees, or visitors. Tenant shall also pay for all repairs required as a result of any burglary that is not reported to the police within 24 hours of the time that the Tenant gains knowledge that a burglary has occurred.

20. REPAIRS:

If the premises require additional cleaning after the Tenant(s) has moved out of and cleaned the premises, the Landlord will, at his discretion have the apartment cleaned to prepare it for the next Tenant. Landlord may further deduct from Tenant's security deposit other charges at the rate of $35.00 per hour. Landlord may further deduct from Tenant's security deposit other charges as may be necessary including, but not limited to, the cost of shampooing the carpets and sofas, and painting. If the unit and/or its finishes and furnishings require cleaning, deodorizing, painting, soot, and/or smoke film, all such costs will be passed through to Tenant(s) by deduction from Tenant(s) security deposit and/or direct invoice. Painting will be charged at the rate of $35.00 per hour, plus materials and supplies.

The Tenant will give up to the Landlord the premises, its appurtenances and appurtenances, and any other personal property belonging to the Landlord at the termination of this lease by lapse of time or otherwise, in as good condition as when taken, excepting only ordinary wear arising from proper usage.

19. SURENDER/TURNOVER COSTS & PRACTICES:

The Landlord may, from time to time, issue memoranda to advise Tenants of policy, procedure, and/or rule additions or changes to facilitate more comfortable or efficient residency. Tenants will be required to accept these memoranda as extensions of the lease. The Landlord and Tenant must be written and signed by both the Landlord and the Tenant to be valid and binding.

This agreement is the whole, entire, and final agreement with respect to the lease of the subject premises and nothing said by the Landlord or the Tenant either before or after execution of this lease is or will be binding on either party. Any and all changes to this lease must be written and signed by both the Landlord and the Tenant to be valid and binding.

18. WHOLE AGREEMENT:

If the Tenant fails to make any payment of rent or part thereof within five (5) days of the date it was due, or if the Tenant, or any one of the Tenants, if more than one, does not abide by or comply with any other part of this agreement, and if the Tenant does not correct the violation or comply within two (2) days after notice by the Landlord, or if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by or against the Tenant or any one of the individual tenants if more than one, or if any Tenant makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, then the Landlord may at its option end this lease on three (3) days written notice to the Tenant, after which three days this lease agreement shall automatically terminate and the Landlord may immediately re-enter and repossess the premises without further notice to the Tenant. The Tenant agrees in such case to vacate the premises at the end of said period. The Tenant hereby authorizes any and all eviction proceedings by the Landlord against him without notice if the premises are not vacated by the end of said three-day period. Even though the lease has thus ended, the Tenant shall remain liable to the Landlord for the total rent set forth in this agreement. However, the Landlord shall have the right to re-rent the premises to other tenants for whatever term and rent said three-day period. Even though the lease has thus ended, the Tenant shall remain liable to the Landlord for the total rent set forth in this agreement. Even though the lease has thus ended, the Tenant shall remain liable to the Landlord under this agreement to be subtracted from or added to the amounts owed by the Tenant to the Landlord under this agreement.

This agreement is the whole, entire, and final agreement with respect to the lease of the subject premises and nothing said by the Landlord or the Tenant either before or after execution of this lease is or will be binding on either party. Any and all changes to this lease must be written and signed by both the Landlord and the Tenant to be valid and binding.

17. BREACH OF LEASE BY TENANT:

The Landlord, its agent, and its invitees shall be permitted to enter the demised premises for inspection, repairs, remodeling and renovations after giving of notices, emergencies, and future leasing and sale, at reasonable hours, whether or not the Tenant is present. The Landlord shall, however, make an effort to notify the Tenant before showing the premises to other prospective Tenants.

The Tenant shall make an effort to notify the Tenant before showing the premises to other prospective Tenants.

21. KEYS & LOCKS:

The Tenant agrees that the fair and reasonable cost of such repair or replacement shall be determined by statements rendered by the Landlord to the Tenant for sums actually expended by the Landlord plus a 10% handling fee, or, in the alternative, a statement rendered by the Landlord before the end of the lease term. The sum so determined shall be paid by the Tenant to the Landlord upon demand thereafter. The Landlord shall pay for all other repairs to the property.

Garbage is to be separated into recyclable and non-recyclable containers or as otherwise required by the municipality. Failure to comply will result in fines as determined by the municipality's law. Any fines and associated work, levied on Landlord due to Tenant failure to comply with control caused by Tenant. Premises must be kept clean and free of vermin.

Tenants (including those of other premises) each Tenant agrees to pay a pro rata share. Landlord will remove garbage and collect cans upon Tenant(s) failure to do so and cost of same will be deducted from security deposit. Tenant(s) shall be liable for the cost of pest or drains, pipes or sewer lines caused by his invitees or licensees. Tenant is responsible for plugging his own toilet if it becomes clogged and for notifying Landlord if plugging does not correct the problem.

e.) Grease, oils, coffee grounds, Condoms, fibrous materials, sanitary products, refuse and rubbish of any kind, and caustic substances (Drama, Liquid Plumber, etc), must not be flushed down toilets or drains. #### 28. VENUE OF ACTIONS:

Any personal property brought onto the premises which shall not have been removed at the termination of this lease, shall be deemed to be abandoned property and may either be retained by the landlord as its property, or may be disposed of by the landlord in any manner the landlord deems appropriate.

All personal property placed in storage on the premises shall be clearly marked with Tenant's name. The Tenant assumes all risk of loss of any such personal property stored anywhere in the demised premises or its immediate vicinity. Any such personal property not so marked with the Tenant's name or left in storage after termination of this lease, shall be deemed trash, and the landlord may dispose of same as he sees fit without further notice or obligation to the Tenant.

27. STORAGE; PERSONAL PROPERTY LEFT ON PREMISES:

If at the commencement of the term of the lease, there remains painting or minor repairs still to be completed, the landlord may give the tenants possession and will complete such painting and minor repairs when convenient to the landlord. There will be no abatement or diminution of rent in such case.

Notwithstanding such delay, the term of the lease will nonetheless end as previously stated. In case of such delay, however, the landlord will allow the Tenant a pro rata abatement of rent.

If through circumstances beyond the landlord's control, the landlord is unable to give Tenant possession of the premises on the date set as the commencement date of the term, the landlord shall not be liable for any damages to the Tenant and this lease shall continue in full force and effect and possession of the premises will be given as soon as reasonable convenient to the landlord.

If the commencement date of the term, the landlord is unable to give Tenant possession of the premises on the date set as the commencement date of the term, the landlord shall paint or repair the premises at his own expense, so long as you are not in default.

26. COMMENCEMENT OF TERM:

The landlord agrees that so long as the Tenant fully performs all the obligations required of him hereunder, then the Tenant may peacefully and quietly have, hold, and enjoy the premises for the term of this lease agreement. "Quiet Enjoyment" does not mean that the neighbors will not make noise or otherwise disturb you. It does mean that you use and occupy will not be interfered with by others claiming the right to use and possess the premises during the term of the lease, so long as you are not in default.

25. QUIET ENJOYMENT:

This lease shall be fully subordinate to the mortgage or any ground lease covering the demised premises and/or any future mortgage or ground lease and shall not require the lender to grant a right of non-disturbance as a condition for subordination of the lease without the express written consent of the lender. Tenant agrees to execute any and all documents to effectuate the provisions of this paragraph within two days of request.

24. SUBORDINATION OF LEASE:

Unless otherwise stated, in this agreement, this lease shall be binding upon all who succeed to the rights or take the place of the landlord or the Tenant.

23. SUCCESSORS:

at any time during the term of this lease upon reasonable advance notice. Tenant expressly waives, to the fullest extent allowed by law, any and all legal limitations on the period during which landlord may perform any of the aforementioned actions, including and not limited to the provisions of proposed Section 258-3 of the Ithaca Municipal Code as such proposal exists in April 2013, and including any enacted, recorded or amended version of such legislation in effect as of the time of this lease.

If any lawsuit, action, or other proceeding is brought under this agreement or to establish the rights, duties, obligations, or liabilities of any party to this agreement, the Landlord and the Tenant hereby absolutely and irrevocably waive their rights to trial of any and all issues by jury, and agree instead to submit to the judgment and decision of the presiding judge or justice.

30. DISPUTE RESOLUTION:

If any lawsuit, action, or other proceeding is brought under this agreement or to establish the rights, duties, obligations, or liabilities of any party to this agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and legal costs and disbursements. Any attorney's fee, legal costs and disbursements incurred by the Landlord in seeking legal assistance to secure monies due or to deduct from any deposits or other monies of the Tenant held by the Landlord to the extent such monies are available. Tenant further agrees to be liable for any fines or penalties for violations of applicable law and municipal codes, ordinances, and regulations, when such violations are attributable to Tenants or their guests. Any such actions will be held in Tompkins County NY. Tenant further agrees to be liable for any fines or penalties for violations of applicable law and municipal codes, ordinances, and regulations, when such actions are attributable to their guests. Any such actions will be held in Tompkins County NY.

29. ATTORNEYS FEES, OTHER FEES:

Action or judicial proceeding involving or arising from this lease in any court other than a court in Tompkins County, New York, the other party shall be entitled to dismissal of such matter from such other court and/or removal to a court of competent jurisdiction in Tompkins County, New York. In such cases, the party who initially brought any action or judicial proceeding involving or arising from this lease in any court other than those in Tompkins County, New York, shall pay to the other party all legal costs, including, but not limited to attorney's fees, filing fees, service fees, and disbursements, incurred in having such action for judicial proceedings dismissed or removed.
